

Bag Pack '07 - Supermarket Success

Local Squadrons raise £1,550 for Hospice and Training Centres.

Cadets and staff from 2048 (Dagenham) Squadron, 1838 (Elm Park) Squadron and 6F (Romford) Squadron raised money for the Princess Marina House Appeal, and the Air Cadet Training Centres. Over the next three years the Commandant Air Cadets, Air Commodore Gordon Moulds intends to raise £500,000 for the Air Cadets from bag packing and a further £100,000 for the Princess Marina Hospice, a respite care home for serving, injured or retired servicemen and servicewomen.

Air Commodore Gordon Moulds said: "This fantastic initiative will provide significant funding for the Air Training Corps and Princess Marina House, as well as boosting adult recruiting."
{multithumb thumb_height=250}

32 cadets and 6 staff packed bags for customers of Tesco in Roneo Corner, Romford. The event took place on Saturday 24th November, a busy shopping day leading up to the Christmas period, however the amount of people and shopping didn't worry the cadets who each managed to raise nearly £40 towards the final figure.